

Words in Winter, Trentham 2019

Ellen Kemp Memorial Short Story Competition Entry Form

This prize is given for the best short story. This year the theme will be 'Change' - we encourage entrants to think as widely as they like on the theme.

Entries should have a maximum of 3000 words and the winning writer will be awarded $300.

Ellen Kemp was a pharmacist by profession, and in 2008 re-opened the pharmacy in Trentham after many years' closure. This was to prove a strategic move in the growth and development of the township. Ellen was an accomplished high diver, skier, sailor and tennis player, and enjoyed music, theatre and films. Sadly, she died in 2011.
